Lawbreakers taking advantage of both. Jefrie was brilliant. And he knew it. His passion was dralchomy, and he was determined to become the best dralchemist in the world. Kloin was his wise master. He saw Jefrie s raw talent and pushed him harder. But kept his most powerful dralchoms to himself. Arthur was too awkward to have any real role other than being Jefrie s best friend. But they let him pretend to be their guard. Tret was the mastermind behind the whole operation. Together, they formed a successful team that created and sold dralchoms.potions that could control or accelerate the dragon curse flowing through the veins of the people of Ardonor. When they are asked to provide an inordinate amount of dragonlyst, they didn t care it was with a mysterious organization that participated in dark rituals and sacrifices. All they cared about was the massive gold being offered and the opportunity to make more dragonlyst. But when they accidentally uncover a secret of the organization, events are set into motion that has the...
