They saw themselves as the most unlikely couple from the start, two that couldn't be further from each other on their paths in life. Yet God had a plan, as He always does, to unite author Connie Raney and her husband Buddy together for the treacherous, but life-transforming journey that was ahead. Everyone Owns a Shattered Mirror, her new autobiography, recalls Connie's past as a child growing up a Jehovah's Witness and then from a broken home after her parents divorce. She then went on a chaotic search for love, finding it finally with Buddy and later with the Heavenly Father. The couple went on to weather illness, financial difficulties and becoming parents, seeing their bond solidified when the blood of Jesus Christ saved them. Connie saw the impossible made possible in her and Buddy's lives and marriage, realizing God made it possible for their love to overcome the obstacles.
