The final book in the Story Behind the Bible trilogy, Book 3, the New Covenant confirms and connects the stories and information of the entire trilogy as well as heralding a new perspective on the Hebrew faith that the world has come to know as Christianity. It is a profoundly correct and advanced understanding, in that this perspective was given to mankind directly, face to face, by the very author and object of the Hebrew faith, Himself. In this portion of the story, the incarnate Hebrew God walked among men in a vessel that was named Yeshua, in Hebrew, or Jesus, in the Greek language. Portions of the faith and many of the laws of Moses had been misinterpreted and misapplied over time. Jesus and His close followers dedicated their lives to articulating, defining, and finally sharing a new advanced perspective, good news or gospel, with the world. Now, over two thousand years hence, much of Christianity has, again, been misinterpreted, misapplied, or simply lost to traditions and folklore. This book addresses those issues, provides commentary and doctrine, but most importantly, provides a concise overview of the elegant story and amazing people of the New Testament. The New Covenant brings this biblical trilogy to a triumphant end.
