You speak German very well - Integration of immigrants in Western countries

By Farshad Mohammad-Avvali

GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Condition: New. 32 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.1in. Essay from the year 2005 in the subject Politics - International Politics - General and Theories, American University of Beirut, course: International Conflicts and Conflict Resolution, 9 entries in the bibliography, language: English, comment: Please note that I cannot give any grade on the paper since I only received a complementary grade at the end of the semester. It was 90 . , abstract: The incentive for the topic of integration derived from the personal experience of coping with the forces of integration in Germany and the rise of the matter of integration to a salient part of the domestic agenda of Western European states and the US as well as countries like New Zealand and Australia. Whether the author considers himself as a success story of smooth integration into German society shall not be debated here. With stagnant or even declining birth rates in the above mentioned countries, the inevitable presence of considerably high percentages of immigrants and their children and, probably most importantly, with the international program to promote the unity of the human race , Western politicians, native societies and immigrants together must reconsider the...
