The climax of the meeting was probably on Thursday, there being an especially large attendance at the session devoted to top-working, which subject, more than any other, seemed of special interest to our members. The bee-keepers met in an adjoining room on Thursday and Friday, but their presence there seemed to have no appreciable effect on the attendance in the main room. It is very unusual to have many numbers on the program of our annual meeting absent, but this was unfortunately the case this year, sickness and unexpected circumstances having detained away from...
