Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Democratic Leaders for Disunion: Speech of Hon. Henry Wilson, of Massachusetts; Delivered in the Senate of the United States, Jan, 25, 1860 This class now rules these fifteen States, abrogating, in support of its interests, the inborn, inbred, constitutional right of freedom of speech and freedom of the press. In these States, the power of this class is overshadowing, resistless, complete. Over the Federal Government this class, this slave power, has achieved complete dominion. The slave power this day holds the National Government, in all its departments, in absolute subjugation. In this Chamber, where sit the representatives of sovereign Commonwealths, that power retains unbroken sway. That power bids the Supreme Court utter its decrees, and that high tribunal obeys its imperative commands. That power holds the President in the hollow of its hand, compelling him to declare that slavery exists in Kansas by virtue of the Constitution; that the master has the right to take his slave into the Territories as property, and have it protected there under the Federal Constitution; that neither Congress nor...
