By H. Hudson Stoddard

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 68 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Excerpt from How to Win Poultry Prizes: Man is combative, fond of emulation, and ever on the alert to possess something new. These peculiarities show themselves in various ways: sometimes in the display of dress or equipage, sometimes in trials of personal strength or endurance, and in other cases we see only a generous and good-natured competition about the possession of some desirable and useful article of property. This rivalry often causes genuine improvement in live stock, and results in benefit to all parties concerned.
