Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .An amazing true story with which so many can identify and draw strength as they struggle to break through their own personal, professional and spiritual barriers. Steve R. Skipper is one of America s most prolific and honored painters and sketch artists. His works have hung in the Professional Football Hall of Fame, the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, the U.S. Capitol, the International Motorsports Hall of Fame, the Birmingham Civil Rights Institute, and the Paul W. Bear Bryant Museum as well as in the National Art Museum of Sport, in NCAA headquarters, and in many other venues nationwide. They also grace the walls of private collectors and sports notables worldwide. Thousands have purchased his inspiring Christian art. He has been commissioned to paint some of the biggest stars in sports from NASCAR, the NFL, professional golf, the NCAA, the Olympics, the NBA and others, ranging from Heisman Trophy winners to inductees into the Professional Football Hall of Fame. But there is so much more to this highly talented artist s story. First, though praised for his technical skill and creativity, he is entirely self-taught. Secondly, he became one of the first African-Americans to gain acceptance in the art world. Even more amazing is the fact that this gentle, soft-spoken man was not only once a member of a violent street gang, but he was also the gang s chief enforcer, the fierce collector of drug debts, and even sold drugs to his high school classmates and football teammates. The big transformation in Steve Skipper s life-one that almost certainly saved his life-came at a simple church revival service, one he attended on a dare, more to mock than to listen. There,...
