John Henderson: Of Greenbrier County, Virginia, 1650 1900 It has been well said that the present is founded upon the past, and the past is our only guide to the future. If we wish to see before us we must turn and look into the mirror behind us. Until recently the American people, except Virginians, have looked upon genealogy as foolishness, and any one who tried to know something of his great-grandfather as a snob. In later years there has been a decided change, but even yet there is a host of otherwise sensible people, who still hold to this opinion. They will say that it is sheer nonsense if you try to interest them in their own ancestry, and then perhaps will talk for hours about the grand ten or twelve generation pedigree of some favorite horse. And why is this pedigree of interest? Because they know that a horse may inherit certain qualities, and they produce his pedigree as a guarantee that he has, or ought to have...
