

Long Journey Home (Paperback)

By Caroline Johnson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Holly knew what she wanted in life: a corporate job in a big city. After losing her job, a visit to her family's small-town ranch makes Holly question her career choice and desires of the heart. After an unexpected job loss, Holly is forced to move from Chicago back to her family's ranch until she can find a new job. She wants to leave as soon as she can to return to the big-city lifestyle she desires. When she sees her childhood friend, Keith Spencer, she's immediately caught off guard, as the boy she once knew has grown into a very handsome man. When Holly develops feelings for Keith, she immediately pushes him away. Nothing will get in her way of getting out of the small town where she grew up. However, when she begins to doubt her actions towards Keith, it might be too late! If you love clean small-town romances, tales of redemption, and swoon-worthy cowboy love stories, you'll love the book, Long Journey Home.
