Bob Wirz, a Stratford, CT resident and 2017 inductee into the Nebraska Baseball Hall of Fame, believes he is part of a much smaller group who has lived a long life rubbing shoulders with the biggest names in baseball without ever swinging a bat or throwing a ball beyond the scruffiest of diamonds. The Passion of Baseball, Wirz s new book, tells the headline-making, celebrity-filled story of living out the dream of a tiny town lad who grew up in the Sandhills of Nebraska and went on to head up Major League Baseball s media fishbowl for more than a decade in New York City. As a friend once put it, this is a dream journey from Halsey (current population 76) to Gotham. Holy Cow! Wirz uses 350 riveting pages...
