

No Light at the End of the Jungle

By Jerry Wood

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 220 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. The story begins with a large group of Vietnam POWs being marched to Hanoi from a Cambodian POW camp. Eleven of the malnourished and weak POWs break for the jungle, trying to gain their freedom. John Walker, the main character, reaches the jungle safely and hides in the under brush. As John hides, he hears the slaughter of his fellow escapees and then the main body moves on. John, scared and disheartened, discovers that at least one other had survived, Alan the secondary character. At this point the story will take the reader back in time to Johns youth. It depicts Johns life from the point of his high school days up through his marriage and his joining the Army then being sent to Vietnam. Although this book is not about the Vietnam War itself, it briefly recounts a few incidents leading up to Johns capture by the Viet Cong. The theme will take the reader through Johns life in the POW camp, meeting Alan and the bond they form. Then the plot will bring the reader up to the beginning of the book. The story at this point...
