Yet wherever his characters roam, their fate awaits them like the proverbial appointment in Samarra. In the title story, poet Alfred Albers attempts to confront with honesty an event from his past that has always haunted him, only to learn anew that no good deed goes unpunished. In The Nature of Angels Maria longs for deliverance from a life made moribund, but is finally forced to ponder exactly what kind of power would answer our prayers This edition includes two later Fleetwood stories: L I and Why Are You Wearing My Daughter s Earrings? [Fleetwood] reaches down and stirs with venomous delight the nameless, faceless things swimming far below the level of consciousness. Scotsman.
