HAUNTED LIVERPOOL 22 (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Once again, Tom Slemen, one of England's great chroniclers of ghostly-goings on, provides us with another fascinating, spellbinding volume of Haunted Liverpool, a phenomenal series of books that have now even gathered a massive following outside of the UK. In this chilling book you will read of the Mouth of Truth - a grisly occult lie-detector that was created by the Seer of Scotland Road, and you will also learn about the dangers of visiting a church or graveyard on St Mark's Eve. Also, read about the Headless Airman of Burton Wood and other ghastly tales of decapitation, and also: be thrilled by the Liverpool sceptic who spent a night alone with a corpse in a church as part of a bet - with terrifying results - plus, who, or what is behind the spate of night-time visits by a figure resembling Jesus who has been seen across Merseyside? Among the forty-four tales you will also read of the strange history of Edge Lane Hall and the mystifying tunnels that run under Wavertree Park, as well as the creepy oversized crystal ball known as the Delhi Eye which was put in the window of a Liverpool shop with disastrous results. plus, the policemen who were teleported across Liverpool by an unknown force, and the well-documented account of a real-life zombie which was once at large in Aigburth's Fulwood Park, plus many more tales of the supernatural taken from every corner of Liverpool by the North West's premier expert on all things paranormal - Tom Slemen!.
