Men on college campuses face an ever increasing minefield of liberal-feminist politics placing their education and their very freedom in jeopardy. Since the 2006 Duke Lacrosse Scandal, college leaders, progressive feminist and politicians have jumped on the blame the male bandwagon when a rape report is filed. Even when a rape report has no merit male college students are often forced off campus due to political correctness. Clearly, local and national media reports indicate college women are reporting false rape to police and campus authorities at an alarming rate. So why do many states and our national government feels the need to strip away due process rights from the falsely accused The answer is simple, feminisms hatred of men and applied political pressure to many weak kneed politicians. Radical liberals and feminist have promoted and insisted on affirmative consent laws to unjustly strip the due process rights of men accused of rape on campus. As more states debate the need for affirmative consent laws there is growing evidence many women who claim rape on...
