

Hamzy (Paperback)

By John G Dirina

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Becca Chambers (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . For that special child in your life, or the child within you, Hamzy is a book for all ages. Weaving a tale of friendship, loyalty and trust, it tells of the importance of working together in the face of adversity. Hamzy is a hamster. He is also an actor. And quite a good one, too, coming from a long line of actors staging plays out of the Arch Street Theatre. He loves the stage, but more he loves to watch the motion pictures that humans show in the parks on Saturday nights. Such magic, romance, and adventure. But the real adventure doesn't begin until Hamzy joins a traveling show in Kansas, that mystical movie land of a little dog's encounters with twisters, lions and flying monkeys. Hamzy is quite daring during the great petting zoo jail break. Later he rediscovers the thrill of performing in a magic theater, and finds courage leading his band to save the theater from Mr. Peterson's wrecking ball. But most of all Hamzy finds himself.
