

Family Affairs (Paperback)

By Imafi

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Love, respect, and tolerance are the themes that intertwine the lives of two families and their relationships. Imafi, the author of Family Affairs, masterfully depicts how many family life circumstances contain common elements and with acceptance, forgiveness, and perseverance, love will endure, regardless of race, religion, gender, or skin color. This riveting family saga addresses love, understanding, and tolerance in the United States with highlights of the West African culture across a contemporary religious backdrop. In Family Affairs, Pastor Shackles is an established clergyman, beloved and respected by his church and community. He and his wife have three children and appear to be the typical family until it comes to light that Samoa, their daughter, is a lesbian who fell in love with Alice Rioldiaz while in grade school. Alice is the daughter of the church s music director. Coming to grips with their families beliefs regarding homosexuality within the context of their religious households is only one of several crossroads that these captivating characters must surmount. The families of Samoa and Alice are also confronted with rape, unplanned pregnancies,...
