Excerpt: . . . ptemher, hut he was horn at Windsor on the 6th of December in the previous year. December 6. He was bora on the sixth day of the month that we may understand that this is the Sixth Henry: through whom, as many think, God will work some great thing in accordance with His more seeret prophecies. Or else because it is a toilsome journey to keep the commandments, and this journey is contained in the number six, because in six days all things were made. Furthermore it is to our purpose that he came to us on the feast of S. Nicholas the Confessor. 1 The one was remarkable from his infancy in the number of those who devoutly fast; the other neither indulges his appetite nor is overcome by surfeiting and drunkenness. The first was raised against his will to the dignity of the popedom; the other, though placed in the position of king, is as one of the people. For it is good for our lord the king that his beginnings should follow the example of the Saints; and it is meet and proper that his life should be ordered by such exemplars; 1 December 6. A. d. U2i. so that the people seeing it, may give due thanks to God. Nor let it offend my readers that I, a man of so little note, so far exhort my lord to follow the example of the Saints, or that I compare his...
