

After Ten (Paperback)

By Michele Shriver

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Four women, once best friends, have not spoken to each other in ten years. A drunken, decade old promise and a class reunion will bring them together again. For Jordan, her lofty dreams now a distant memory and her life at a crossroads, a reunion with her one-time friends offers a chance to make amends and start anew, but only if she can avoid falling back into self-destructive habits. After years of struggling with her identity, Sarah has found personal and professional contentment. Will she finally have the courage to reveal the secret she hid from her friends? Beth thought she was on the verge of having it all, but after a personal crisis, now risks losing it all. In order to face her future, she must first find a way to let go of the past. Tracey is still searching for happiness and approval. Will she find what she is looking for at the reunion, or leave stronger because she doesn't? A story of forgiveness, acceptance, the bonds of friendship and the age old question of whether you...
