

The Characters of Christmas: Family Devotions for the Christmas Season (Paperback)

By Steve Biddison

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Every character that is central to the traditional Christmas story is part of the greater story of God's greatest gift to humanity. Because of that gift, we can enjoy the decoration, the lights, the carols, and our family throughout each Christmas season. This 25 day family devotional examines the main characters in the Christmas story to see what we as individuals as well as family units can learn from how they responded a couple of thousand years ago. It not only brings the family together each day during the Christmas season, but gives a way to keep the true meaning of Christmas at the forefront of our personal and family life.
