This is a true story of how one small dog with a heart so pure; changed one small girls life of self destruction to one filled with benevolent glory. Roses, born into a life of alcoholism and abuse, received a small dog which became her safe haven. In this dog she saw God s pure love. With the seed of God s love planted in her heart, Roses grows into a strong self assured woman who is able to share her story and her life with other lost souls through foster parenting and adoption. This gift of love, through God s Grace and this incredible woman, has changed many children s lives for the better.M. J. Lucas.
