

The King of Cool (Paperback)

By Lori Watts Hiron

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Forget werewolves. Forget vampires. Forget mystical creatures. To find the real King of Cool, you only have to travel to a small Caribbean island where he, his friends, and an eclectic assortment of island characters battle with some Somali pirates over a stolen submarine AND money. Thomas Dawson is not a unique teenage boy. He likes hanging out with his friends, playing sports and keeping his homework to a minimum. The difference in his world, is that HIS world is the beautiful Caribbean island of St. Croix. A sleepy piece of paradise where his main worry is Cricket practice and trying to spear as many lionfish as he can with his friends. His father, ex-CIA agent, Samuel Dawson, moved to the island with his son after a bitter divorce in hopes of creating a more peaceful life and building his new computer security business. Their world is turned upside down when a couple of Somali pirates choose the pristine waters of St. Croix to park their sub while they make the financial deal to sell it to a ruthless Latin American dictator...
