FBI CASE FILES: MATCHMAKER: FBI SERIES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The FBI has a group in every state that have computers dedicated to find patterns. Some track cyber, some track vehicle incidents, some check MO s. A victim unit also has a pattern that they look for. The patterns are spotted, pulled and sent to a team for follow-up. The ping received for this came out of Pennsylvania. MO using knife. A face now studied the monitor and information and made a note in a section and then tagged it for a specific file. That file then now went to a profiler - the work started. The profiler pulled the case file. Upon more information another profiler was called in to again go over the information and then assigned to a team. The Big 6 had another case. The team of 6 started at the Academy had been split up. But the 6 had been followed / hunted by one of their own. A friend? Hell no. A Hunter. Wilson nearly destroyed them once but the 4 that remained, put their heads together and captured Wilson and those with him. Wanting to keep a team of 6 the 4 inducted 2 others. Bingham Todd and Tim Masters. Now The Big 6 again they traveled and worked together. A woman author - a killer - a match? Charlotte McLaughlin writes books. This series has her FBI agent trying to catch a killer. Stumped. The police notify Charlotte that someone is copying her work. Making it real. She thinks they are wrong. The Mayor assigns her a bodyguard. Agent Shepherd is not excited to be pulled from the crime scene and into her living room but it is done anyway. Doesn t seniority...
