It s a time for loved ones to come together and celebrate positive energy before an ill family member goes off to receive intensive surgery, i.e. cancer. It s an occasion for wishing a person well on a safe and healthy road to recovery. A Healing Shower is similar to how we celebrate life s milestones - weddings, birthdays, anniversaries, and baby showers. The difference is that instead of wedding gifts, birthday presents and so on, guests arrive prepared to help the loved one with a deed(s), such as: taking the loved one to regular doctor s appointments, doing the laundry on a weekly basis, preparing meals three to four times a week, and many othe tasks your loved one will need during this dfficult time. The Healing Shower was written by Eloise Laws, an award-winning vocalist, Tony-nominated actress and breast cancer survivor. Eloise s Statement: This book is written to encourage and uplift all those feeling numb, shock, hopeless, abandoned, without diection, and at death s door. Such emotions are due to an illness that frequently traps patients in darkness searching for the light. When I first received the life-changing news, I was alone. It felt like a lftime for the technician to get back with me with the results of the second test. I sensed that something was wong. Then, she appeared and said, We need to contact your doctor to let him know that we should schedule a biopsy: because of what we found. I just sat there without the ability to move. MALIGNANT! I never thought in a milion years that my breast would need a biopsy. But, right when the technician...
