Oh, no; such a little boy as you are to kill such a dangerous beast! But I was inside of him; just look at the stones I cut him with. Then she went up softly and saw the holes and believed. And after that they moved down among the berries and had all they wanted to eat. THE THIRSTY QUAILS A quail had more than 20 children and with them she wandered over the whole country in search of water and could not find it. It was very hot and they were all crying, Where can we get some water Where can we get some water but for a long time they could find none. At last, away in the north, under a mesquite tree, they saw a pond of water, but it was very muddy and not fit to drink. But they had been wandering so many days and were so tired that they stopped in the shade, and by and by they went down one by one and drank the water, although it was so bad. But when they had all had enough it made them sick and they died. THE NAUGHTY GRANDCHILDREN An old woman had two bright grandchildren. She ground wheat and corn every morning to make porridge for them. One day as she put the olla on the fire outside the house, she told the children not to fight for fear they would upset the water. But...
