Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Aids, Gifts, Grants and Donations to Railroads: Including Outline of Development and Successions in Titles to Railroads in Michigan To the Michigan Railroad Commission: In July, 1914, the Honorable Charles A. Prouty, Director of Valuation of the Interstate Commerce Commission, suggested the practicability of this Commission co-operating with the national body in the collection of data pertaining to aids, gifts, grants and donations to the carriers by the States or municipal subdivisions of the States, to aid in the construction of the various railroads. This request received the favorable consideration of this Commission, and under instructions from the late Hon. Lawton T. Hemans, then Chairman of the Commission, the writer undertook the research suggested by Mr. Prouty. The routine work in statistics and kindred phases of the Commissions duties have made it necessary that this research be subordinated to the regular work of the office. For this reason report upon the subject has been so long delayed. This research was taken up in August, 1914, and a preliminary study of the subject disclosed that if the results were to be of practical value, not only the subject of aids, gifts, grants and donations required attention, but that the historic connection of the corporate entities receiving such financial assistance in the years of railroad development should be traced to the companies now possessing and operating the railroads of the State. Since taking up the matter, such time each year as regular work permitted, has been devoted to this subject. The results of the work is herewith presented. Public support of railroad enterprises in Michigan has been given in diverse ways and has been a factor in...
