Original publisher: Washington, DC : Presidents Advisory Council on Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships, 2010 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)648147299 Subject: Federal aid -- United States -- Citizen participation. Excerpt: . . . SECTION A: Economic Recovery and Domestic Poverty INTRODUCTION Every dayAin every part of AmericaAfaith-based and neighborhood organizations are serving the most vulnerable members of our Nation in both profound and ordinary ways. Faith-and community-based social service providers are an integral part of our Nations fabric. They provide warmth, food, housing, job training, mentoring, and hope to millions in every State, city, and town across America. The impact of these organizations is enormous, whether funded by private or public dollars. For example, one of eight people living in poverty received services and support from Catholic Charities. The United Way has 1, 279 offices located in every State and virtually every congressional district and works with 37, 300 partner agencies across the country. The Jewish Federations of North America represent 157 Jewish Federations, which raise and distribute nearly 3 billion annually for social welfare, social services, and educational needs, through a network of agencies that also receive over 10 billion in governmental funds annually. Lutheran Services in America reports that its member agencies across the country worked with a budget of more than 16 billion last year. Nonprofit networks, like Feeding America, serve more than 37 million people each year through some 61, 000 local faith-and community-based charitable agencies. Additionally, there are thousands of smaller nonprofits that are working at the community and neighborhood levels every day, whose combined impact cannot even be measured. But we know that without the compassion, innovation, and daring of these groups, this country would be a different place. Faith-and community-based social service...
