Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Beacon Lights of History, Vol. 9: European Statesmen The remote causes of the French Revolution I have already glanced at, in a previous lecture. The most obvious of these, doubtless, was the misgovernment which began with Louis XIV. And continued so dis gracefully under Louis XV.; which destroyed all rever ence for the throne, even loyalty itself, the chief support of the monarchy. The next most powerful in?uence that created revolution was feudalism, which ground down the people by unequal laws, and irritated them by the haughtiness, insolence, and heartlessness of the aristocracy, and thus destroyed all respect for them, ending in bitter animosities. Closely connected with these two gigantic evils was the excessive taxation, which Oppressed the nation and made it discontented and rebellious. The fourth most prominent cause of agitation was the writings of infidel philosophers and economists, whose unsound and sophistical theories held out fallacious hopes, and undermined those senti ments by which all governments and institutions are preserved. These will be incidentally presented, as thereby we shall be able to trace the career of the re markable man who controlled the National Assembly.
