Amana Mission Publishing Ink Alternative Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 134 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Enter the LyricVerse of Indi Riverflow, a poetic quest to match the singer with a song. The Revised Edition of Gyroscope includes 54 lyrics for current and future songs with John Kadlecik and others, along with new introductory and retrospective essays, notable quotables, and illustrations by Amana Mission. From Surreal Cortex: The Gyroscope is my way of thinking about the universal matrix of motion, powered by the momentum of intersecting vectors in dynamic equilibrium states. This particular pattern appears to be inherent in all processes, mirrored in each phase of animation within space and time. The following lyrics are largely hymns to this harmony, the source and force of life itself. The occupations and preoccupations of the theoretical scientist and the literary artist overlap in this contemplation of being and becoming. The key difference is that scientists are responsible for the verifiability of their findings, whereas writers are responsible for the veracity of them. Rhythms of respiration, infusion and exhalation, the circulation of new and old blood, beat by the pulsing pump at the heart of physical embodiment, depict an ongoing event on which every cell depends. So it is with the breath of fresh perspectives; the flow must go on. Language serves as a conduit for the transfer of consciousness. Speech is directed breath, the sharing of selected thoughts converted into sounds, integrated into the immediate reaction of our neighbors. Dynamic and largely lost in the instant, such words fade fast, and are therefore cheap, unless they are recorded and preserved. More rarely, guided hands tap out coded thoughts, launching them in a state of suspended animation, to be received and interpreted at a later date by a wide variety of eyes. Such...
