Jumping into your role in life 1 The Road to Calvary: not a walk in the park Christs death on the cross was revealed to the world in many ways in the Bible. Prophets like Elijah described his death as well as his birth in very vivid and graphic ways, years before he was born. Many signs were given before the miracle of his virgin birth. Christ told his disciples about his death and resurrection in many parables. Unfortunately, the disciples grasped the revelation of these parables only after his death. The night before he actually traveled on the road to Calvary, he saw the picture very clearly, and felt the pain even before it happened. In fact he was so grieved that he even asked if God could let it pass him. In spite of sweating even blood by the thought of it, he still yielded to the will of God. Folks, no matter what the road may seem like, with the pain and agony, loneliness and rejection, the will of God for our lives is the only destination that will win us real victory. It is the best destination we could ever imagine, however we often have to bear our cross, and wear our crown of...
