Excerpt from The Outlines of Individualism: A Lecture Delivered at the John Street Institution, London, on the 16th of October, 1853 Trine of Individuality, System of Individualism, or Individuality of the Individual. That is my Gospel, my substitute for a dying or a dead Christianity; for perhaps it is as well that we should at once vote Chris tianity dead and have done with it. For this Gospel of mine I have published books and written essays and reviews and articles and preached and lectured and endeavoured in every way, always avoiding quackery and ostentation, to recommend it to the notice of the Public; but better than all I have endeavoured to live my gospel; and no one, I think, can say, however otherwise he might be disposed to condemn me, that I have ever deviated from the valiant and often troublous path of a persistent individuality. Like all men who set forth a new theory, I have had little to support me but my own enthusiasm, and have been seldom under stood, seldom felt except when I could pour myself as fiery...
