Do Dragonflies Roar?, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Have you ever wondered whether your family s daily chaos is normal? If you read The Mom Comedies, you will wonder no more. In these short, humor-packed stories, the reader is taken through all stages of the family malady otherwise known as parenthood. Beginning with author Lauren Lauterwasser s first-time experience with pregnancy and continuing through the toddler years, this laugh-out-loud book takes in all the trials and travails that is modern motherhood. The Mom Comedies deserve a place the sarcastic family humor tradition of Erma Bombeck. Told in brief episodes, the hilarious stories will bring laughter and tears to anyone who has ever lost their mind while raising a child. Author, and (of course) mom, Lauren Lauterwasser began the book as a blog, back in the day before blogging was cool. When she became pregnant, which the inexperienced young author naively assumed would be the most stressful event she would ever have to face in life, Lauterwasser began a baby site, chronicling her maternity experiences for family and friends who lived far away. Unexpectedly, she developed a following far larger than her family. E-mail requests for more mom comedies flowed through her in-box. Once she had children (two girls, delivered 18 months apart, thank you), Lauterwasser didn t seem to have as much time to write. At least not until Facebook came along, which allowed her to write in short, humorous bursts. Encouraged by the response to the steady stream of frank stories, Lauterwasser began posting about her crazy life as a bewildered mother. These are stories of a young, working mother trying to keep herself sane alongside a smart-aleck husband and two young daughters whose antics will keep...
