

Journal of a Cymbal Player: Freshman Year (Paperback)

By Mrs Giselle Lumas

Donty Books, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jackie Roberts (nickname- Jacks) is 5 4 and weighs 115 pounds, fourteen and just entered high school. She s flat chested and feels like an alien when compared to the other girls on campus. To avoid taking a regular physical education class, she decides to join the marching band under the advice of her cousin. Her English teacher, Mrs. Lovegood, assigns everyone in her class to begin keeping a journal on a daily basis. She doesn t like the idea of writing everyday, even if it is only for eight minutes out of a day. Jackie feels tortured trying to come up with five sentences per day as well. As an introvert, Jackie has a hard time fitting in but it seems even harder now as a cymbal player. She questions where she belongs with the band. She must maintain a C average to stay in the band, which is something she is struggling with. Her cousin comes back to visit during Christmas break to challenge her even more. She is in search of a voice to shout her desire to control...
