Excerpt from How to Sell Dogs There are approximately breeders of dogs in the United States and in Canada. Practically all of these persons sell dogs. Many of them depend upon the income from the sale of dogs for the necessary additional funds with which to pay their own living expenses. Some use this income for extra spending money. A number depend upon this in come to defray their entire living expenditures. Others breed and sell dogs to de fray various costs, such as sending a son or daughter thru college, buying furnishings for the home, and so forth. Whether one breeds dogs for hobby or for commercial values, it is well that the sale of dogs be conducted in a businesslike way and on the basis of correct sales psychology.
