

Poems by a Tea Drinking Great Grandmother

By Martha Swink Taylor

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 70 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. Poems by a Tea Drinking Great Grandmother written by Martha Swink Taylor who started writing poems at 86. The first poem Drinking Tea is a loose adaptation of a country song with a different beverage. Martha sent a copy of Drinking Tea to her two great granddaughters, Sydney and Taylor, who have been enjoying their great grannys poems. Still writing poems at 88, Great Grandmother Marthas poems span the full range of human experience and the human condition. Some poems are humorous, carefree, and fun while others focus on more serious matters of the heart specifically love and loss. Family and friends have been enjoying Great Grandmother Marthas poems for the last few years and encouraged her to gather them into a collection. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
