

I Love to Show My Horse: My Show Results Journal (Paperback)

By Mary Jean Simpson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Showing horses gets into your blood! Each person has his or her own reasons for loving to show horses. The thrill of competition and riding in a show is exciting. But the real love of showing is not all about winning. Going in with the mindset that you want to have fun and learn something--regardless of the outcome--will most likely make the show a positive experience for you and your horse. Your horse is totally dependent upon you. At the same time, you have a partnership in which you are the leader. Your horse is happiest being with you. If you are showing, then you undoubtedly have a horse who loves the sport. The love you share, the trust you place in each other, the companionship, the teamwork required of both of you: those are the important things, the things that are of true value. This is the reason that I have created this journal. Yes, it s fun to win. It s a great feeling to go home with a ribbon or trophy. But the real value of showing comes when...
