Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the neighboring villages of Chah and Wum, simply living life can feel like nothing more than Vain Labour. Kimbi is a young village boy struggling to grow up in rural West Africa. Abandoned by his wicked father while still in the womb, Kimbi has been brought up single-handedly by his poor, downtrodden mother, Mbong. Though proven highly intelligent, Kimbi struggles to find the necessary funding for school, and must delve into the dark recesses of his past to find his father and discover why he was left as a baby. Just as the train of events starts to turn in his favor, Kimbi receives the greatest shock of his life as his beloved mother has died, leaving him completely alone. Through struggles and hardships that push Kimbi almost to the breaking point, author Nto Denis Kembea helps us learn that it really does take a village to raise a child. Born and bred in Wum in 1972 in the North West Province of Cameroon, Nto Denis Kembea attended Government Primary School, Zongefuh, Government Primary School, Fang,...
