

Mistaken Identity: It Wasnt Me - A Novel

By Rochelle Marshall

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 264 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. It was shocking and humiliating, but it wasn't me. Roxanne Mitchell suffers from dissociative disorder. The obsessive compulsive part of her personality, Tiffany Williams has dominating and disruptive behavior which is very difficult for Roxanne to keep under her control as she reaches out for professional mental medical attention. While a chain of events take place in her life that gets her into a lot of trouble, Roxanne only remembers very little of how she got involved with the incidents. Now she struggles to try and prove her innocence. But, the question is: Did she actually commit the serious crime and is deserving of going to prison? Everyone has a little Tiffany in them.
