

I Told You So: The Sequined Sequel to Dont Ask, Do Tell

By William Bonzo

Menehune Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 222 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.6in. Knowledge is an enemy to bigotry. William Bonzo has, as promised, followed his very popular book DONT ASK, DO TELL that brave little tome that came into print in October 2010 when the debate about gays in the military was raging, a book of honest appraisal of the situation from the probing and entertaining eyes of a man who had successfully served in the military and dared to give the insider picture. Now he returns with a new book, described as a sequined sequel to Dont Ask, Do Tell that opens even more windows not only to the situation of prejudice present in the military but also to the true facts of what happens while serving as an openly gay man in his final tour of duty in the US Navy. It bubbles with Bonzos inimitable style of prose and shares a road map of how he adjusted to coming out and the manner in which he found happiness at last living a life of honesty and joy. Bonzo opens his story in Hawaii with a tender reflection at the graveside of his deceased partner and shares that...
