Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD). Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 236 pages. Dimensions: 10.9in. x 8.1in. x 0.6in. The OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises aim to help businesses meet the challenge of acting responsibly in any country they operate by providing a global framework for responsible conduct covering all areas of business ethics. While observance of the Guidelines by enterprises is voluntary and not legally enforceable, adhering governments are committed to promoting their observance among enterprises. This Annual Report, the twelfth in a series, and the first since the Guidelines were updated in May 2011, describes what adhering governments have done to live up to their commitment over the 12 months to June 2012. In particular it highlights the mediation and consensus building activities promoted by National Contact Points, the Guidelines implementation mechanism set up by adhering governments.
