Meadow Lake Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 384 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.0in. When Victoria Winslow awakens from a coma at a New York City hospital, she has no memory of who she is, how she got there, or why Jack Posthandsome and illustrious movie star has been visiting her room daily. She certainly doesn't remember getting breast implants, or the accident that scarred her once-beautiful face. When memories do surface, Vickie senses she cannot trust them, especially when a private investigator questions if any of her memories from her love of skydiving to even her name are real. Forgetting Me follows Vickie through an intimate journey of self-discovery where memory loss forces her to face the harrowing question: is she more than the sum of her experiences? With bravery and keen determination, Vickie resolves to find her family and reclaim her life, knowing that she must face who she once was before she can embrace the person she always wanted to be. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
