Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Not illustrated. 1804 Excerpt: .is what may happen, and certainly will happen to many, if ever Bonaparte renders himself master of this country. God knows whether we merit a similar correction; but this wretch has certainly been sent into the world as a scourge for humanity. In spite of all, my friend, we hope, if we shall be faithful to ourselves and to our God, to defeat his perfidious plans, and, by the help of Providence, to inflict upon him the punishment he merits. No. XXX. Miss Lypia Mac Donald to her Sister. 12th August. Every person here assumes a brave and warlike attitude. God bless our armies, and make our success equal to the desire we feel of extirpating from the face of the earth a monster so greedy of human blood. You can easily imagine in what way we already experience the sad effects of war: No day passes without witnessing the ruin of the most opulent commercial houses; judge then of the situation of those possessing less brilliant resources. (9) (g) These invectives originate in the ignorance of the English people with respect to the secret intrigues of the Ministry, pretty Completely developed in Lord Grenville s letter, No. l. i x, f. No. XXXI. A. Stewart /- his Cousin. 1 Have not time to furnish you with much news i I can only tell you that all England is in arms. While the Consul lives, he will suffer no part of the world to remain in...
