Page Publishing, Inc., United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.What does the Bible say about the leader and the exercise of leadership? What are the keys that can help us recognize a true leader and true leadership? These are the main questions Sancy Matschinga answers through a unique and outstanding study of passages and principles extracted from the Bible and applicable to the field of leadership. Dedicated to present and future leaders, and to everyone interested in leadership, this book provides us with the tools to become leaders and avoid obstacles and traps in order to fulfill the real purpose of leadership. Identified by the author as a ministry of speech and fair and effective action, different from the single abilities to manage or to lead, leadership corrects, guides, and outshines people and organizations. Much more, when it is exercised, true leadership is a blessing for all. It takes off a part of the veil on the meaning of the existence of a country, a company or any organization. Thanks to his analysis of the components and purpose of leadership through the Bible, Sancy Matschinga goes beyond managerial theories. The reader of this book will discover the truth about leadership and will be amazed by the universality, modernity and beauty of the biblical principles.
