Excerpt: . . . Section 2: Your Medicare Rights 7. File a complaint You can file a complaint about payment, services you received, other concerns or problems you have in getting health care, and the quality of the health care you received. Your Medicare Appeals Rights You have the right to appeal any official decision about your Medicare services, such as billing, payment, or service issues. You can appeal if Medicare doesnt pay for a Medicare-covered item or service you have been given, pay enough for an item or service you have been given, or give you a Medicare-covered item or service you think you should get. For more information on filing an appeal, call your State Health Insurance Assistance Program ( see page 30 ). Your Medicare Quality of Care Concerns You have a right to file a complaint if you think you arent getting quality services or you have quality of care issues. This type of complaint is called a grievance if you are enrolled in a Medicare Choice Plan. If you want to file a complaint about the quality of health care you have received, call...
