Irving Place Editions, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . When a videotape shows up with a note talking blackmail, ADA Dale Cuffy knows it s a matter requiring an unofficial response - especially as the video catches him at an orgy with more than his pants down. Even worse is the fatal accident (in dying color) involving his wife, who appears to have caused the crash on purpose, in disguise. How are these scenes related? Who played witness, on-the-spot with a camera? Can Dale thwart the blackmailer and be sure of keeping secrets? Shauna knows what Dale does not: the identity of the pornographer and the name of his opportunistic apprentice. College classmate, spurned admirer, disappointed in life and love, Milo Duarte abandons Shakespearean scholarship to prove a point Shakespeare knew: Sex sells. It always has. Jobless and short on options, Milo brings to market Jason s old videotapes, created more than a decade ago. The profits that follow transform his threadbare existence into relative affluence, which he hides as carefully as Jason s tapes. When mail-order erotica becomes blackmail, however, Milo learns that violations of human decency court an awful vengeance. Can video recordings ease existential dread? What if the woman you most desire and cannot have is featured? Will electromagnetic playback (in analog!) allow her to remain young and beautiful forever? Is watching acceptable if she doesn t know? What if she does? And if she was not fully consenting during some or all of these acts, are their audiovisual renderings harmless entertainments or evidence of multiple felonious assaults -- that is, rapes? In case of the latter, which is the worse crime: offering the videos for sale or erasing the evidence? A narrative of operatic variety, The Pornographer...
