Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The 20th Quarter-Annual Horse Contest is a comedy about two thirty-something men (Jim Lucas and Ron Treland) in the 80 s who come together periodically to deepen their long-term friendship through the playing of a basketball game called HORSE. They have developed their own peculiar way of playing the game, where the object of the game is superseded by the creativity of their playing styles and shot selections. It is more of a creative ritual than a competitive game. The game is continuously interrupted (sometimes in real time, mostly not) by Ron s parents, Jim and Ron s high school basketball coach, Jim s college basketball coach, and Jim and Ron s wives. The interruptions constitute the evolution of the relationships between Ron, his parents, and his wife, and between Jim, his old coaches and his wife. Ron is caught in his father s business and under the command of his father s crusty personality, whereas Jim is caught in his past high school glories and college failures. Jim s wife, Lynne, is relatively economically and emotionally stable, and this stability is both a source of strength and resentment for Jim, who is less stable in those areas. Ron s wife, Jeannette, is tired of the whole thing and wants Ron to deal with his blustery and obnoxious father and live his own life, but she is unwilling to separate from Ron as he works on his relationship with his father. Jim s high school coach serves as Jim s much valued connection to his glory days in high school and Jim s college coach serves as his hurtful reminder of his failure to sustain a college basketball...
