THE CONSTRUCTIONS OF FAY WELDON

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Woman of Letters | Contemporary British novelist Fay Weldon negotiates the postmodern "culture industry." Modernizing the strategies traditionally deployed by women writers, Weldon engages with the advertising industry and the mass-oriented literature of radio and television, using them to construct a career and a public identity for herself while advancing an alternative history of women in the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries. She exploits the distinctions between high, popular, and mass cultures...
