Bernard formerly with Virot Paris establishments in the same locality it is one of the daintiest and most charming. Along the lines of similar Paris establishments, it yet has an individuality which will not be forgotten by the visitor. The woodwork is in ivory white enamel and the walls in green and white. A pretty effect is produced by the exquisite furnishings in enameled willow, and a certain touch of coziness is suggested in the selection and arrangement of these pieces. A handsome cabinet, containing costly novelties and glittering coiffure pieces, is very effective. Vistas are well managed and inviting, with the result that..
