DREAMERS WORLDS THE GIRL IN THE STONE VOLUME 1

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 292 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Laura is a dreamer. When she was a little girl she knew she was destined to dream. She fought it and that fight nearly killed her, She found herself on the streets, drug addicted, away from her people and the elders who could guide her, teach her to use her great power. Eventually she learned that she could not deny The Creator. She began to learn how to dream, how to walk her walk. She learned slowly at first but faster as time went by until she became the most powerful dreamer in ten thousand years. She learns to travel from place to time to world with the ease of a thought. Her power is incredible and sometimes it scares her when she wonders where it might lead her. Dreamers that she has known have never fared well in the real world. They were not born for it. Purposed for it. And they are at odds with it for all of their lives. It feels the same for her. She meets another Dreamer, Dell. They pass in their dreams. But their dreams seem to be becoming one. . . The same in purpose and destiny. And she finds herself drawn to this man. He awakens something in her that she has denied for years but now feels powerless to ignore. Dells life did not include dreaming, but he learns that the creator chooses whom he chooses and the power is given to be used. His life has been a series of misjudgments. Paralyzing losses. A young wife carrying their child mysteriously killed. He has been directionless, uninterested in life, since that tragedy five years before. Dell is a young man...
