LETTERS FROM APARTHEID STREET : A CHRISTIAN PEACEMAKER IN OCCUPIED PALESTINE

CASCADE BOOKS, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Synopsis: In 1984, Ron Sider challenged that until Christians are ready to risk everything in pursuit of peace, we dare never whisper another word about pacifism . . . Unless we are ready to die developing new nonviolent attempts to reduce conflict, we should confess that we never really meant that the cross was an alternative to the sword. From this challenge, Christian Peacemaker Teams was born. Nearly thirty years later, Michael McRay too explored Sider s challenge, interning with CPT in the West Bank city of Hebron. Alongside local and international peacemakers, McRay learned how to resist the violence of occupation, sharing in the stories of a suffering people as he struggled to embody the peaceable spirit of the rabbi from Nazareth. This book tells those stories. Drawing on his personal experience with the land and its history, McRay s raw letters home tackle critical issues relevant to peacemakers everywhere: What is really happening in Palestine that mainstream media fails to report? How are Palestinians lives being affected? How can one be peaceable amidst such violence and oppression? How should Christian discipleship influence one s pursuits of peacemaking and reconciliation? McRay s letters illustrate both the challenge and promise of the cross in today s world. Endorsements: Our field needs passionate, on-the-ground, firsthand descriptions of the challenges of constructively engaging settings of deep and painful conflict. McRay s book provides just such a window. --John Paul Lederach, author of The Moral Imagination Surprisingly invitational. This is a book worth reading and rereading. As a guide for activism, I hope these reflections will have a profound rippling effect. --Kathy Kelly, Nobel Peace Prize nominee A valuable resource...
